Tokyo, Japan—Aiming Incorporated (TSE:3911) announces the start of service for the English version of its smartphone game, “Eagle: Fantasy Golf” (Japanese title name: スマホでゴルフ！ぐるぐるイーグル), for Android in the Philippines.

The Philippine launch is positioned to serve as a beta test and after which, Aiming would then actively consider the expansion of “Eagle: Fantasy Golf” to other English-speaking territories.

“Eagle: Fantasy Golf” began its service in Japan under the name “スマホでゴルフ!ぐるぐるイーグル” on April, 2014 and achieved over 1.7 million downloads as a popular golf game (as of November 17th, 2015). With easy and simple controls, one can enjoy this light and full-fledged golf game under a minute’s time, alongside hundreds of cute costumes, clothing and an exceptional “zero-wait state” when it comes to one-on-one battles. By clearing a Hole (also known as a “Map” in the game) one can acquire new equipment (such as golf clubs and clothing, etc.), and also materials to strengthen them. Thus, you can enjoy customizing your avatar as well and shine with your unique sense of style!
