Notice on the Decision to Launch “Logres of Swords and Sorcery: Goddess of Ancient” in Taiwan, Hong Kong and Macau

Tokyo, Japan—Aiming Incorporated (TOKYO: 3911) and Marvelous Incorporated (TOKYO: 7844) announce the decision to launch “Logres of Swords and Sorcery: Goddess of Ancient”, their co-developed MMORPG for the smartphone through Garena Online Private Limited on the Taiwan, Hong Kong, and Macau markets scheduled for release in 2015.

“Logres of Swords and Sorcery: Goddess of Ancient”, a light and easy MMORPG designed with play sessions lasting only a few minutes, started its service in Japan on December 2013. Gaining favorable top rankings in both Google Play and the App Store, a growing userbase, and a steady increase in revenue since its Japan launch, “Logres of Swords and Sorcery: Goddess of Ancient” achieved over six million downloads in April 2015.

Taking into account its positive performance in Japan, “Logres of Swords and Sorcery: Goddess of Ancient” will make its first step overseas in the Taiwan, Hong Kong and Macau markets through a licensing agreement with Garena Online Private Limited (operated by Garena Taiwan Co., Ltd), the biggest online game company in Southeast Asia.

Headquartered in Singapore, Garena Online Private Limited has offices in Taiwan, Malaysia, Philippines, Thailand, and Indonesia. Garena services "BeeTalk", a popular chat application in Southeast Asia, and other communication tools on their platform business. Leveraging these competencies and through partnerships with leading global game developers, Garena as a game publisher, also services PC online games namely "League of Legends" (developed by Riot Games), and "FIFA Online 3" (developed by EA Sports) in Southeast Asia garnering over 17 million active monthly PC users on its platform. Garena Taiwan launched the smartphone game “雷霆戰機” (developed by Sunmosh Corporation) in November 2014; “雷霆戰機” reached and stayed within the top 10 positions in the Top Grossing ranking on the Taiwanese application market from January to March 2015, acquiring over 11 million active mobile users, a demonstration of the strong publishing capabilities of Garena.
